Ky Returns, Vows Saigon Sincere

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — South Vietnam's Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky returned today to supervise his government's delegation to the Vietnam peace talks and said the Saigon regime is "sincere and ready in the hope of achieving a just and lasting peace."

"Peace can be restored as soon as the Communists abandon their scheme of expansion by force," the Saigon leader told newsmen.

Ky and his attractive wife were welcome at Orly airport by ranking members of the U.S. and Saigon delegations, including the man Ky once told intimates he regarded as a father, Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Ky was premier of South Vietnam at the time of Lodge's second tour as ambassador in Saigon in 1967. The two were on the best of terms, with Lodge often counseling Ky. Lodge this week replaced W. Averell Harriman as chief of the U.S. delegation to the talks.

The South Vietnamese vice president will exercise over-all supervision of his delegation but will not sit at the conference table as a negotiator.

The first substantive meetings of the Vietnam talks open Saturday morning at the International Conference Center.

"I am happy with the progress," Ky said in his statement. "Once more I wish to affirm that the Republic of Vietnam is sincere and ready in the hope of achieving a just and lasting peace and of ending the war."

"I hope that the people on the other side will show the same good will. Peace can be restored as soon as the Communists abandon their scheme of expansion by force. The Vietnamese people fervently hope for peace—but they are absolutely opposed to Communist domination. We cannot be conquered by force. I wish good success to the talks."

Asked whether he was hopeful of the outcome, Ky said, "As an aviator I am always optimistic. Given the maximum chance and good will the talks in Paris will be successful."

He said the South Vietnamese government is planning to "assume full responsibility in the military field" and is studying plans to increase the government's forces in 1969 to replace foreign troops progressively.

After 60 Years Steam Powered Cars Tuning Up for a Comeback

By STERLING F. GREEN

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sixty years after it chugged off into oblivion, the steam-powered automobile may be tuning up for a comeback.

If the country gets really serious about licking air pollution, says Resources for the Future, Inc., it might take a look at modern-day versions of the Stanley Steamer, the White and the Locomobile.

From all standpoints of technology, "an acceptable steam powered automobile could be put on the roads in a very few years," said a special study published in RFF's annual report.

Electric autos also would help the smog problem, the report said, but would need "a decade or so" of development to become high performance vehicles matching gasoline-fueled internal combustion engines.

The steam car, by contrast, could quite rapidly be developed into a fully-powered, long range vehicle equivalent to today's ordinary motor cars in response, acceleration, power and fuel economy.

Unlike its ancestors of the early 1900s, the new steamer would have no heavy, dangerous boiler, could make a cold start in 30 seconds, and wouldn't have to stop every half-hour to take on water.

The absence of clutch or transmission would mean less cost.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Western Arkansas Telephone Co. said Thursday that its financial reports were as valid as those of a utility rate expert who testified Wednesday that the company did not need a $460,000 rate increase.

The testimony came in a state Public Service Commission hearing.

James Honaker, a Kentucky utility consultant hired by the commission to analyze the rate increase request, had testified that the company had a rate of return of 5.38 per cent on its investment in 1968. Company officials said it was 4.4 per cent.

The company questioned Honaker's figures on expenses. The firm has placed its expenses for each telephone at $25.11 while Honaker said they were $22.59.

Honaker said the company was entitled to a rate of return of six per cent and his figures indicated that an increase of $108,000 would provide that rate. The company's request is for $460,000.

A ruling on the request is expected next month.

"At the end of the two minutes he asked me to sign," Bucher said. "I said I wouldn't. He told a guard at my side to move so when I got shot and the bullet passed through my head, he would not be hit."

"Kill the son of a bitch!" Bucher said a North Korean shouted. "The gun clicked but it didn't fire. I had fully expected to be shot. But when the slide was drawn back, presumably to insert another bullet, I did not hear any bullet hit the floor and I damn well knew it was a game they were playing."

Two more minutes went by, Bucher said, and "the officer said, 'He's not worth a bullet,' and told me I would be beaten to death. Two guards beat me to the floor and kicked me and worked me over real good. I lost consciousness after a few minutes. I asked to go to the bathroom. . . all I could urinate was blood."

At one point, as Bucher appeared near collapse, the Navy's counsel, Capt. William Newsome, asked if he wanted a recess.

"Not! Not! I would rather get this over with now," Bucher replied. He was trembling.

Bucher said he was taken to another building and shown a tortured man strapped to a wall. "They told me he was a South Korean spy. He was alive. . . but had a compound fracture of his upper right arm with less weight, lower repair bills. And because the steam engine can give instant reverse acceleration, brakes would be needed only for parking.

And it would discharge virtually none of the contaminants which make autos and trucks the principal source of air pollution, according to the findings of Physicist Robert U. Ayres.

Under a grant from RFF to determine whether there are practically alternatives to the internal combustion engine, Ayres performed the research at Hudson Institute, Croton on Hudson, N.Y.

The study said that interest in the steam powered car has never died out, and in new hand-crafted models the most serious shortcomings of the old steamers are now overcome.

Instead of a massive teakettle-type boiler it would have a monobute steam generator containing only a small amount of water. Water consumption might amount to a gallon every thousand miles.

There would be no starter motor, carburetor or fuel injection, no engine-block cooling system, no distributor, no muffler, no elaborate air pollution control system and only one spark plug.

The savings would more than offset the extra weight of the steam or vapor generator and its controls, Ayres said.

Any hydrocarbon distillate would serve as fuel. Continuous combustion at low pressure would result in far fewer complete burning and, even without controls, far fewer air pollutants. There would be no stringent requirements for octane ratings or need for adding tetraethyl lead—and thus no blowing into the atmosphere of vast quantities of fine lead particles hazardous to health.

Phone Firm Says Rate Is Valid

"The people who pay taxes are not the people who are standing outside that door objecting every time a bill is brought up," Gibson said, pointing to the back of the Senate chambers.

"This bill is setting the stage and is the keynote for this entire session," he said.

The bill would raise about $200,000 in the next fiscal year, according to the state Revenue Department, but several senators said they believed this estimate was drastically low.

It is the first exemption measure that the Senate has acted on. Prevailing sentiment in the Senate is to look closely at the exemptions under state tax laws before tackling Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's proposed tax program.

Several senators said privately that the exemption bill repeals a 1965 act sponsored by former Rep. Paul Van Dalsem of Perryville that was requested partly by Dierks Forests, Inc.

Peter Joers, chairman of the board of Dierks, acknowledged Thursday night that he had talked to several senators Wednesday night at a legislative dinner given by the Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce.

Joers said Dierks was "interested" in the 1965 bill at the time of its passage, and he said removal of the exemption would result in double taxation of corporations, whose headquarters are located in Arkansas as Dierks' is, and which has a subsidiary in the state.

He said larger companies than Dierks would be effected by the repeal.

Sen. Oscar Alagood of Little Rock said during the debate that he would like to know why the repeal attempt was being made, and added, "Whose ox is being gored?"

"This is not the time for us to begin listening to special interests," Alagood said. "What is wrong and who is putting the pressure on?"

Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs, sponsor of the motion to recall, said it would amount to double and triple taxation. Sen. Virgil Fletcher of Benton said removing the exemption might keep some large corporation from locating an industry in Arkansas.

In other action, the House passed a bill permitting special elections on issues to finance community junior colleges.

It passed 78-10 a bill to provide that defendants would be considered under the influence of intoxicants when there is .10 per cent alcohol in their blood.

Four Physicians

Four physicians were among the signers of the Declaration of Independence—Josiah Bartlett, Matthew Thornton, Lyman Hall and Benjamin Rush. Oliver Wolcott, although trained in medicine, was a jurist when he signed.

Then, he said, the men got their letters back and were ordered to recopy them, adding the North Korean changes.

The North Koreans tried to propagandize his men with socialist movies every Friday night and booklets and brochures about the "tremendous number of atrocities by American troops during the Korean war."

"They gave us absolutely ridiculous accounts of the war and the way things were in the world," Bucher said. "They gave us news in a way that tried only to demoralize us."

"They told us Robert Kennedy had been killed by the President of the United States."

the bone sticking out. He was stripped to the waist. He had completely bitten through. . . Bucher's voice broke, and after a long pause he continued: "I was completely bitten through his lower lip. It was hanging down. His right eye had been put out. There was a lot of . . . (Bucher's voice failed for a minute) . . . black matter running down his right cheek. He was under three spotlights. I do not remember leaving that building."

He said his captors told him, "That's what happens to spies, and you are spies, and you will get exactly the same." "I passed out," Bucher said.

Senate Recalls Bill on Tax Exemption

By ROBERT SHAW

Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Senate had a change of heart Thursday — despite charges that it was relenting beneath pressure from special interests — and recalled from the House a bill that repeals an income tax exemption granted corporations with subsidiaries in the state.

The bill repeals the income tax exemption granted corporations from income received from subsidiaries in which they own at least 95 per cent of the capital stock.

The vote to recall the bill was 22-12. The measure had passed Wednesday 25-7.

Meanwhile, the Arkansas House set a hearing for 3:30 p.m. Monday on a bill to merge the University of Arkansas and Little Rock University. The bill received a recommendation from the House Education Committee Thursday that it pass the lower chamber.

The Senate debated its exemption bill for two hours Thursday. Several senators said they thought pressure was being put on the senators by special interest groups.

"Are we going to have to recall to every bill to hear from everybody who is affected by taxation?" asked Sen. John F. Gibson of Dermott. "If this is the type of opposition we are going to receive on every bill, we're going to have a hard time getting bills through this session."

"The people who pay taxes are not the people who are standing outside that door objecting every time a bill is brought up," Gibson said, pointing to the back of the Senate chambers.

"This bill is setting the stage and is the keynote for this entire session," he said.

Legislature Gets Senic Rivers Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State

Sen. Oscar Alagood of Little Rock Thursday introduced a bill in the Arkansas Senate creating an Arkansas Scenic Rivers System and an Arkansas Scenic Rivers Committee.

The bill would set up a committee to recommend what rivers should be in the system. The governor and the General Assembly would handle those recommendations.

The committee also could contract engineering and professional services to preserve the natural state of rivers in the system.

Alagood said the bill was designed to protect such streams as the Buffalo and Eleven Point rivers. The two have been the subject of controversy because of efforts to dam them.

Rep. James Harrell of Russellville introduced a resolution in the House that called for a legislative investigation of the Child Welfare Division of the state Welfare Department.

Harrell said he had received reports that children in some foster homes "were not in the best physical or hygienic condition."

Harrell said he wanted the investigation to determine if some of the reports he had received were "only isolated incidents."

The resolution calls for a five-member investigation committee that would be empowered to conduct hearings and "do all other things necessary for a complete and thorough investigation."

The committee then would file a report and recommendations to the House.

Other measures introduced in the House Thursday included: — A bill by Rep. Joe Hamilton to exempt vehicles 30 years old or older from the motor vehicle inspection law.

— A bill by Rep. N. B. "Nap" Murphy to exempt persons 65 or older from all ad valorem property taxes levied on the first $5,000 of actual value of a homestead.

— A bill by Rep. Julian Streett authorizing the Revenue Department to suspend the driver's license of any person upon a second conviction of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

— A bill by Rep. L. L. "Doc" Bryant which would make it a felony to damage or destroy state property on state highway right of way or in any state park.

— A bill by Rep. John Sink to create a commission for crime and law enforcement.

— A bill by Rep. Leon Holsted to provide for an additional municipal judge in cities with not less than 55,000 population nor more than 90,000.

Other measures introduced in the Senate included: — A bill by Sens. Olen Hendrix of Prescott, Morrell Gathright of Pine Bluff and Ralph Hudson of Harrison authorizing the Arkansas Planning Commission to designate planning and development districts and permitting the legislature to appropriate funds for them.

— A bill by Sen. Knox Nelson of Pine Bluff to subject agricultural cooperative associations to all taxes now imposed on corporations.

— A bill by Sen. Dan T. Sprick of Little Rock authorizing cities of the first and second class to levy a gross receipts tax on sales within the city.

the interior," Mansfield added. Mansfield, paired against confirmation, said the vote has no significance for the future and "we're very hopeful relations will be good."

Hickel, whose views on conservation and water pollution had stirred a storm of controversy, was the last of Nixon's 12 Cabinet appointees to be approved. The others were sworn in Wednesday.

Also confirmed Thursday was multimillionaire California industrialist David R. Packard as deputy secretary of defense.

The vote was 82 to 1. Tennessee Democrat Albert Gore, declaring the nomination constitutionally "a conflict of interest as plain as the nose on your face," cast the single "nay."

All 16 dissenting votes on the Hickel nomination were cast by Democrats. All Republicans either voted for the Alaska governor or stated support of him.

Confirmation of Stover Hits Trouble

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller "is going to have trouble" getting the state Senate to confirm Thomas R. Stover as state labor commissioner, Capitol sources reported Wednesday.

Stover, 35, became acting commissioner last September. The position was vacated by Dotson Collins, who resigned to help in Rockefeller's campaign for re-election.

Sources said Rockefeller's choice for the job is Stover, but Marion Burton, the governor's personal secretary, said Rockefeller hadn't decided on a replacement.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

THE BAD AND THE BEAUTIFUL—MESS

Dear Helen: You women! Always sticking together to claim we men are such louses! If you think men are the ones who like to play around the most, let me tell you a real scorcher.

Two years ago I became interested in joining a local mat-swaping club which meant my wife would have to join also.

When I mentioned it to her she became hysterical, screamed to me and cried, "How could you think of being unfaithful after 15 years of marriage, and you have some nerve to think that I, a proper lady, would want another proper lady, would want another man."

After much persuasio, I finally convinced her to try it just once. Wow! Would you believe in just two years she has outdistanced me ten times?

She is one of the biggest flirts in the club and when I suggest not going to some of their affairs, she carries on until we go. I'm beginning to think maybe women are more hunters than men. Tell me please, what are they REALLY thinking about while they slave over the hot stove? — HUSBAND (?)

Of them are probably thinking you're a dirty middle-aged man married to a free lance Hedonist and you deserve all the problems you'll soon be having.

So go crawl back in your hole. — H.

Dear Helen: I take exception to your "She's over 21 and times have changed" answer to the mother of the 23-year-old girl who visited her boy friend's apartment and went on weekends with him. The mother should make it abundantly clear she disapproves, if for no other reason than to relieve some of her feeling of responsibility.

Many people think that "times have changed," when the truth is in the outward acceptance of immoral behavior. And that isn't new. I remember "flaming youth," and "free love" slogans of the 20s. The other day a young friend ruefully said, "I believed in living free until I had to have an abortion. How I wish I had waited!"

I'd like to hear women told that modern or not, men still have two categories for them: Good (marriageable) and bad (exploitable).

By voicing her disapproval, the mother might bring about a marriage or a break-up. Society's rules are still for the protection of the female. — MRS. R.T.

Dear Helen: Thank you for realizing what most dirty-minded adults don't — that apartment don't play it like a James Bond move, and we can even go on week-ends that include separate rooms. It's up to the girl, for while the fellow may hope, sex isn't a great big glaring issue any more. You either do or you don't and who cares? If, as you said, the mother has raised the girl with the right principles, she'll hold true to them for her time and place. They may include a less rigid interpretation than less honest generations mouthed (but didn't follow) or, quite often, they include "waiting till marriage," but not flaunting her purity. She'll visit his apartment, let the busybodies think what they wish, and only he and she will know for sure.

...And her worried mother had better trust her upbringing, for making an issue over a very private ADULT matter will only drive her grown daughter away. Bussing ends when the girl reaches 21. — ARRIVED

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There were several moments during NBC's alleged documentary, "The Lions Are Free" Thursday night when one wondered if he had not tuned in "Daktari" by mistake.

Theatrical license and camera tricks are permitted, even welcomed, in fictitious action-adventure shows, but when a special program is held out to be an account of a visit by a British actor to Kenya to check up on the well-being of some lions with whom he had costarred a couple of years earlier, it would seem to be the better part of wisdom to stick to the literal truth. Particularly if the resulting film was to be shown to a sophisticated, show-wise audience.

The premise of "The Lions Are Free" was sentimental: Bill Travers, the actor, who had played an African game warden in, "Born Free," and had made friends with seven lions during the production of the film, went back to Africa to see how the animals, after exposure to man, were getting along in their natural habitat.

All that was fine. But the doc-

Sterilization Measure Is Introduced

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Sen. Richard Earl Griffin of Crossett Thursday introduced a new sterilization bill and said he would withdraw his original measure.

The original bill required that a person with an IQ of less than 50 show proof of sterilization before he could marry.

The new measure introduced Thursday removed the intelligence quotient and marriage features of the old bill.

It would set up a procedure under which the guardian or natural parent of any mental incompetent who "manifests sexual inclinations which make it probable that he will procreate children" could petition for sterilization of his child.

A parent or guardian could petition probate court for a hearing on sterilizing his child. At the hearing, it must be proved that the person is mentally incompetent and that he is capable of having children.

The bill has protective provisions under which an attorney is appointed to represent the person who would be sterilized. It sets up procedure under which that attorney could appeal a probate judge's decision.

Griffin said it had been found that enforcement and administration under his original bill would have been difficult. He said there also was concern over drawing a fine line of an intelligence quotient of 50.

Griffin's announcement of the new bill came at a news conference attended by nine education, welfare and medical experts who supported the new measure.

Physically refreshed after only one game in two weeks, the Hope Bobcats try to rebound from an 0-2 start in 4-AA Western Division competition tonight hosting the Arkadelphia Badgers in Jones Field House with the junior boys game tipping off at 6:30 p.m.

Also 0-2 in district play, Arkadelphia has experienced a tough loss of 64-61 to Malvern in overtime, and a crushing 64-42 fall to the 17-0 Fairview Cardinals, whom Hope plays tomorrow night.

Earlier in the Ouachita Tournament in December the Badgers smacked the Bobcats 41-1 and went on to win that tourney. The Badgers have had two straight fine junior high squads which have supplied the material for this young crew, who display an outstanding desire to win.

Sophomores Bill Hurley and Bill Vining lead Arkadelphia scoringwise with Hurley using his 6-2 form well under the basket. Vining, son of the OBU head basketball coach, stands 6-1 and stays out front.

Lefty senior Jim Hurley, older brother of Bill, brings the ball down and is averaging around 10 points per game. 6-6 Noel Wolber is a two-year starter, but never has been a very prolific scorer.

Overall the Badgers have fair height, and a lot of speed which runs an air-tight defensive alignment.

For the game the Bobcats will have to establish an inside game with the likes of center Jim Singleton, but most of all Hope must stay away from unnecessary fouling which has cost so much late in games. Control of at least the offensive backboards would allow shooters like Ricky Putman, Danny Reyenga, and James Simmons to perform.

Coach Jim Jordan's Bobkittens, with a three-game winning string and a 6-5 season mark, bring a good attitude and a good chance of winning into the weekend's games with Fairview and Arkadelphia.

Led by starters Lynn Norton, Steve Harris, Buddy Ingram, Tommy Frazier, and Tim White, the Kittens have the height and capability to compete with the best that 4-AA has to offer. It will take more improvement, though, for the boys to gain a spot in the AA state meet in mid-February.

Tomorrow night the Bobcats will get a chance against the almighty Fairview Cards, who have everything and are defending 4-AA champs.

Coached by Pat Foster, the Cardinals have 6-5 juniors Mike Green and Shady Patton underneath, and Patton may be the best athlete on the squad.

Another junior, 6-2 Jimmy Harris, is a top rebounder who also averages about 15 points each game. Two seniors fill out the lineup, those being 6-4 Dicky Bush and playmaker Richard Sanders. Foster also has great depth, and barring letdowns could pull out an unbeaten season.

This writer will be out of town for this weekend's games to see some relatives graduating from rebounding lead from Vernon the University in Fayetteville, Walker of North Carolina A&T but Randy Wright will take the reins. Randy is the younger brother of Larry Don Wright, who was the Star Sports Editor in 1965 and 1966.

SWC Teams Split Against Outside Foes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Southwest Conference split even in non-conference play Thursday night to push its mark against outside basketball foes to a respectable 39-32.

Baylor won its 10th game against two losses with a 103-57 spanking of Tarleton State while Rice took a 75-56 whipping from Georgia Tech.

The only game involving a SWC team tonight is at Fayetteville where Arkansas hosts Oklahoma City.

Baylor connected on a sizzling 56.3 per cent of its shots in defeating Tarleton State. Larry Gatewood, third leading season scorer in the SWC, played little more than a half but garnered 17 points. Tommy Bowman and Tom Friedman each had 15.

Steve Dean scored 25 points for the losing Plowboys of the Lone Star Conference.

Georgia Tech's stout man-to-man defense limited Rice to but 29 field goal attempts in the first half as Tech romped to a 35-23 lead. Rich Yunkus sank 25 points and grabbed 17 rebounds as Tech shot 47 per cent from the floor.

Little fliesty guard Greg Williams topped the Owls with 24 points. Rice is now 5-8 for the year.

Allen Makes It to Top in Four Season

NEW YORK (AP) — In his fourth season and after 94 games, Jonnie Allen of Bethune-Cookman has finally made it to the top of the individual scoring leaders in the NCAA's College Division.

This week's rankings by National Collegiate Sports Services show Allen with 250 points in seven games, a 35.7 average. The Wildcats didn't start their season until mid-December.

Allen, a 6-foot-7 senior, displaced the season-long leader, 5-9 John Rinka of Kenyon, who dropped to third at 34.1, behind Ken Hall of Westminster, Utah, at 34.5.

Last year, Allen was the runner-up at midseason, finishing fifth with a 32.1 average. He averaged 27.1 as a freshman and 22.8 as a sophomore and ranks No. 8 on the all-time College Division career scoring list with 2,642 points in his 94 games.

The weekly statistics had a new leader in every category. Frank Zinke of Belmont Abbey replaced Marvin Lewis of Southampton as the field goal percentage leader at 73.1 per cent. Lewis, however, took over the some relatives graduating from rebounding lead from Vernon the University in Fayetteville, Walker of North Carolina A&T but Randy Wright will take the reins. Randy is the younger brother of Larry Don Wright, who was the Star Sports Editor in 1965 and 1966.

The top foul shooter at 91 per cent is Jack Gebler of St. Norbert, who ousted Marvin Schmitt of Western New Mexico.

Better Fans

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Earl Strom, veteran NBA official with 12 years' experience says the fans today are more sophisticated.

In earlier years, he said, when fans were upset there always was the threat of physical abuse. A referee had to be scared. Now fans are still rabid but not physically abusive.

The top foul shooter at 91 per cent is Jack Gebler of St. Norbert, who ousted Marvin Schmitt of Western New Mexico.

Bowl Game Paid Hogs $250,000

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Penn State came out of the year end football bowls the big winner, both on the scoreboard and at the bank.

As an independent university it keeps all of its share of about $330,000 from the Orange Bowl where the Nittany Lions defeated Kansas 15-14. Kansas must whack up its $330,000 with the Big Eight conference, a rule that applies in one form or another for all the other conferences.

No exact figures are ever announced on the Rose Bowl, the biggest and richest of them all, but with a sellout crowd of 102,063 and a rich television contract, the Big Ten and the Pacific-8 are each reputed to get around $1 million.

The Big Ten divides its share up 11 ways, two parts going to the team that played, and one to each other conference member. This amounts to about $100,000 per share. The Pacific-8 divides its portion equally among the eight conference schools. In the Rose Bowl, Ohio State dumped Southern California and O.J. Simpson 27-16.

In the Gator Bowl, each team received about $190,000 but Missouri, the winner over Alabama 35-10, must share its prize with others in the Big Eight and Alabama must split with members of the Southeastern Conference, with Alabama keeping $115,000.

In the Bluebonnet, where Southern Methodist took a squeaker from Oklahoma 28-27, the team shares were the biggest ever, about $192,000 with SMU keeping $100,000 and sharing the rest with Southwest Conference teams. Oklahoma's Big Eight counterparts were also cut in. The previous record was $160,000 each to Texas and Mississippi in 1967.

The Sugar Bowl was a rich one. Here Arkansas beat Georgia 16-2 and each reportedly got $250,000. Georgia kept $115,000, with the balance split among Southeastern Conference teams, while Arkansas kept $100,000 and split the rest with the Southwest Conference.

The Cotton Bowl also was lucrative. Texas and Tennessee each received about $300,000. Texas kept $100,000 and divided the balance into eight shares, with seven going to Southwest Conference members and the eighth to Texas itself. Tennessee kept $115,000 and split the rest with the Southeastern Conference. Texas won 36-13.

In the out-and-out charity games, the North-South in Miami returned about $65,000 to charity and the Shrine East-West game in San Francisco returned $250,000.

Stars in the All Star Game Still Shine

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The National Hockey League's All-Star Game was played three days ago but the stars haven't stopped shining.

Detroit's Frank Mahovlich, who scored two goals in the mid-season classic, came right back with a pair Thursday night as the Red Wings battled Boston to a 2-2 tie.

Bernie Parent of Philadelphia, the only goalie to play a full period of shutout hockey in the All-Star Game, kicked out 36 shots and led Philadelphia to a 2-2 standoff with Chicago.

Claude Larose, who scored the West Division's tying goal in the final three minutes of the All-Star Game, tallied Minnesota's first in a 3-1 victory over Pittsburgh.

In other Thursday night action, New York dropped Los Angeles 3-1, Oakland stunned Montreal 5-3 and Toronto staged St. Louis 3-2.

Mahovlich's 28th and 29th goals of the season balanced a pair by Ken Hodge of the Bruins and gave Detroit the standoff which extended hot streaks for both clubs.

The Bruins, unbeaten in 12 games, zoomed into a five-point lead over Montreal in the East Division. Detroit, which has lost only one of the last 10, is locked in a three-way tie for fourth place with New York and Chicago.

Parent was brilliant against the Black Hawks as Philadelphia battled Chicago to a tie. The Flyer goals by Dick Sarrazin and Guy Gendron came 16 seconds apart in the second period with Gilles Marotte serving five-minute major penalty.

The Hawks were two men short for the first one with Bobby Hull also in the box. Doug Mohns and Howie Young scored for Chicago.

Larose's long slap shot got the North Stars off in front of Pittsburgh and Minnesota, playing its first game under returning Coach Wren Blair, ended a 14-game winless streak at the expense of the Penguins.

After the game, the teams swapped defensemen with Duane Rupp going to Pittsburgh and Leo Boivin to Minnesota. The Rangers were also successful with a returning coach as Emile Francis stepped in for ailing Bernie Geoffrion. Rod Gilbert scored a pair of goals and Vic Hadfield assisted on all three New York tallies in the victory over the Kings.

Montreal jumped off to a 2-0

MRS. JIM CHILDERS, CHIEF CLERK

SIXTY-SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY
LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

Representative

DISTRICT 34
Hempstead County

Mr. Alex Washburn

Hope, Arkansas 71801

Dear Mr. Washburn:

As you know, the United States Congress is in session almost all of the time. The members are well paid, adequately staffed and have franking privilege, whereby they may keep in close touch with those who elect them.

The Arkansas Legislature meets only 60 days during a two year period. No staff or offices are available to the members of the legislature, nor do they have mail franking privileges. Consequently, it is physically and financially difficult for the members of the legislature to poll their constituents concerning their views on pending legislation. Because of the size and scope of General Revenue proposals for increased taxes, I would appreciate your assistance, as a public service, in running the enclosed questionnaire in your paper on one or more days. It should be suggested that it be marked, signed with the address of the person signing, and mailed to me in care of your mail box. By this means we might jointly open and tabulate the results. Of course, the identity of those replying will be kept confidential as is all correspondence.

I believe this would be an excellent way of making a poll of public opinion in Hempstead County regarding the tax program being recommended to the 1969 legislature.

Sincerely yours,

Talbot Feild, Jr.

QUESTIONNAIRE

TO THE PEOPLE OF HEMPSTEAD COUNTY:

Governor Rockefeller has recommended to the 1969 session of the General Assembly a comprehensive tax program. In recommending this program, the Governor is discharging his duty by calling the attention of the General Assembly to the financial problems of the State, and submitting his recommendations for the means of obtaining the funds to meet his expanded program.

Members of the House of Representatives, and the Senate, likewise have a duty to discharge their responsibilities by evaluating the various tax proposals and by appropriating the funds necessary to operate our government. In representing you and before casting my votes on these proposals, I would appreciate your reviewing the Governor's tax proposals as outlined below, plus two other items, and then indicate on each proposal whether you are FOR or AGAINST.

TOTAL NET INCREASE

$95,620,000

It is predicated that with a normal four percent increase in revenues the second year will produce $99,424,000, which will total $195,024,000 for the two-year period.

The Arkansas Legislative Council has concluded its budget work and has recommended that expenditures be held within manageable revenue income under present tax collections during the next two years. Unfortunately, holding the revenues to this rigid line will make it impossible to provide increases in welfare benefits, increased teacher salaries and other expansions in state services.

It has been estimated that by eliminating exemptions in the sales and use taxes $50,000,000 in additional revenue would be available without an increase in the tax rate.

It is my opinion that with between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000 Dollars of new money each year, we can meet our essential needs. This might be obtained without tax increases or by some tax increases on luxury items plus eliminating exemptions in the sales and use taxes.

(FOR _____ AGAINST _____) obtaining these funds without increasing taxes or by some tax increases on luxury items plus eliminating exemptions in the sales and use taxes.

From 1960 to 1965, inclusive, the state's total tax collections increased twice as fast as the per capita income. Based on per capita income Arkansas is one of the highest taxed states in the nation. Only Mississippi has a lower per capita income than Arkansas. Your individual income is the index to what you can pay in taxes, just as it is the index to what you can buy for your personal and family needs and welfare.

The Governor's Committee on the Study of Efficiency in State Government made recommendations which if implemented might save in excess of $31,000,000. None of these recommendations for economy in state government have been implemented, (FOR _____ AGAINST _____) putting these recommendations into effect before raising taxes.

"As far as I'm concerned, this is the place," said Presley, who recorded his first hit in this Mississippi River city. "I can do a session sometimes while at home without having to travel to other parts of the country."

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG
Best Not to Neglect Hoarseness Symptoms

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Q—I am 54 and in good health. For about nine months I've been hoarse, especially when I'm upset. A specialist says my ears, nose and throat are O.K. What besides cancer could cause this hoarseness? What treatment is there for it?

A—Hoarseness is a symptom that should never be neglected, especially if it persists for more than three weeks. If a specialist has assured you that no serious disease is present, the cause may be excessive talking, drinking or smoking. The vocal cords tire easily in persons who are anemic or generally run down. Excessive dryness of the indoor air and smog are possible causes and in some persons chronic emotional tension may be the source of the trouble. The cause must be found before any effective treatment can be prescribed.

Q—My son has chronic laryngitis. What treatment is recommended?

A—Here again the treatment would depend on the cause. In addition to the causes listed for hoarseness, chronic laryngitis may be due to tuberculosis, benign tumors, kidney disease and allergy.

Q—What is meant by bowed-out vocal cords? Would that condition cause hoarseness? What are singer's nodes?

A—Bowing-out suggests a diffuse swelling of the vocal cords due to inflammation. It would surely cause hoarseness and discomfort associated with talking.

Singer's nodes are small nodules or polyps that sometimes form on the vocal cords of persons who misuse their voice in shouting or untutored singing over a long period. They can be removed easily by a throat specialist. This should be done as soon as they are discovered to prevent their becoming cancerous.

Q—Two months ago a doctor said my throat irritation was caused by gargling with a strong mouthwash. I no longer use a mouthwash, but my throat is still raw. What do you advise?

A—Because throat irritation is so often caused by alkaline mouthwashes and alkaline saliva, I would suggest that you drink warm lemonade three or four times a day. Sucking hard candy or candy made with glycerin two or three times a day may also help.

Tornado Death Toll 29 in Mississippi

By JAMES H. DOWNEY
Associated Press Writer
HAZLEHURST, Miss. (AP) — Massive clean-up operations began today in central Mississippi where tornadoes killed 29 persons as they carved a path of destruction across three counties.

The twisters, roaring in from the west Thursday morning, injured more than 150 persons and left approximately 300 homeless. Damage was estimated in the millions.

The first area struck was a predominantly Negro settlement just outside south Hazlehurst in Copiah County. The tornadoes then moved northeastward into rural areas of Simpson and Smith counties about 30 miles later.

Utility crews worked into the night Thursday to restore most of the electrical and telephone service.

The Hazlehurst hospital alone treated 128 persons. Many others were taken to hospitals in Jackson and Brookhaven.

About 200 homeless persons spent the night at an emergency center set up at the National Guard armory in Hazlehurst.

Governmental and private agencies quickly moved into the area to care for the hungry and the homeless.

"We are ready to feed, clothe and shelter all of them," said George Sheffield, central Mississippi Red Cross disaster chairman.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture in Atlanta and the state Welfare Department in Jackson volunteered to provide food where needed. Gov. John Bell Williams, on a tour of the stricken area, pledged state aid.

Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., announced in Washington the Small Business Administration would make three per cent loans available to business and residential areas. Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., urged the government to declare the region a federal disaster area.

Survivors said an overwhelming roar and ominous darkness preceded the tornado.

"It sounded like a train to me," said Lonnie Haynie. "When the lights went off we got on the floor and I got on top of my youngest child. The house was flattened over us."

"I knew what it was when I heard it," his wife Vera said. "Then the roof came down around us. When I opened my eyes I saw it was going up the hill. I was afraid it was coming down and I made my children stay down. It looked just like they show them on TV."

Nothing remained of the house of Jack Smith, a laundry employe, but the brick pillars. Mrs. Smith's body was found 100 yards away in a pasture. Gladys Perkins of South Hazlehurst was standing in the ruins of her home when officers told her that her injured son had been reported dead in a Jackson hospital.

"Oh, Lord! Oh Lord! My child is gone!" she screamed. "Oh Lord! Oh Lord! Have mercy!" She fell to the ground. Neighbors took her to the armory for treatment of her wounds and to be given food and shelter.

After describing why he confessed, Bucher said Thursday, "sometime during the night I attempted to commit suicide by drowning myself in a bucket of water in my room but was unable to accomplish this."

"Mentally, I was quite disturbed," he said, partly because of the embarrassment he thought his confession caused the United States.

The typewritten confession said Bucher was a CIA agent, that his ship intruded into North Korean waters and that he was trying to put South Koreans ashore.

"And I realized," he said, "they (North Koreans) needed me alive more than anyone else in the crew for public appearances that I was afraid of and knew were coming."

SOURCE of VALUES

We can get them from The Old Book—values a-plenty to make the New Year really new. Of course the months, the weeks, the hours are much like the old ones.

We should carry all the good things of yesteryears over into the New Year, and then add more.

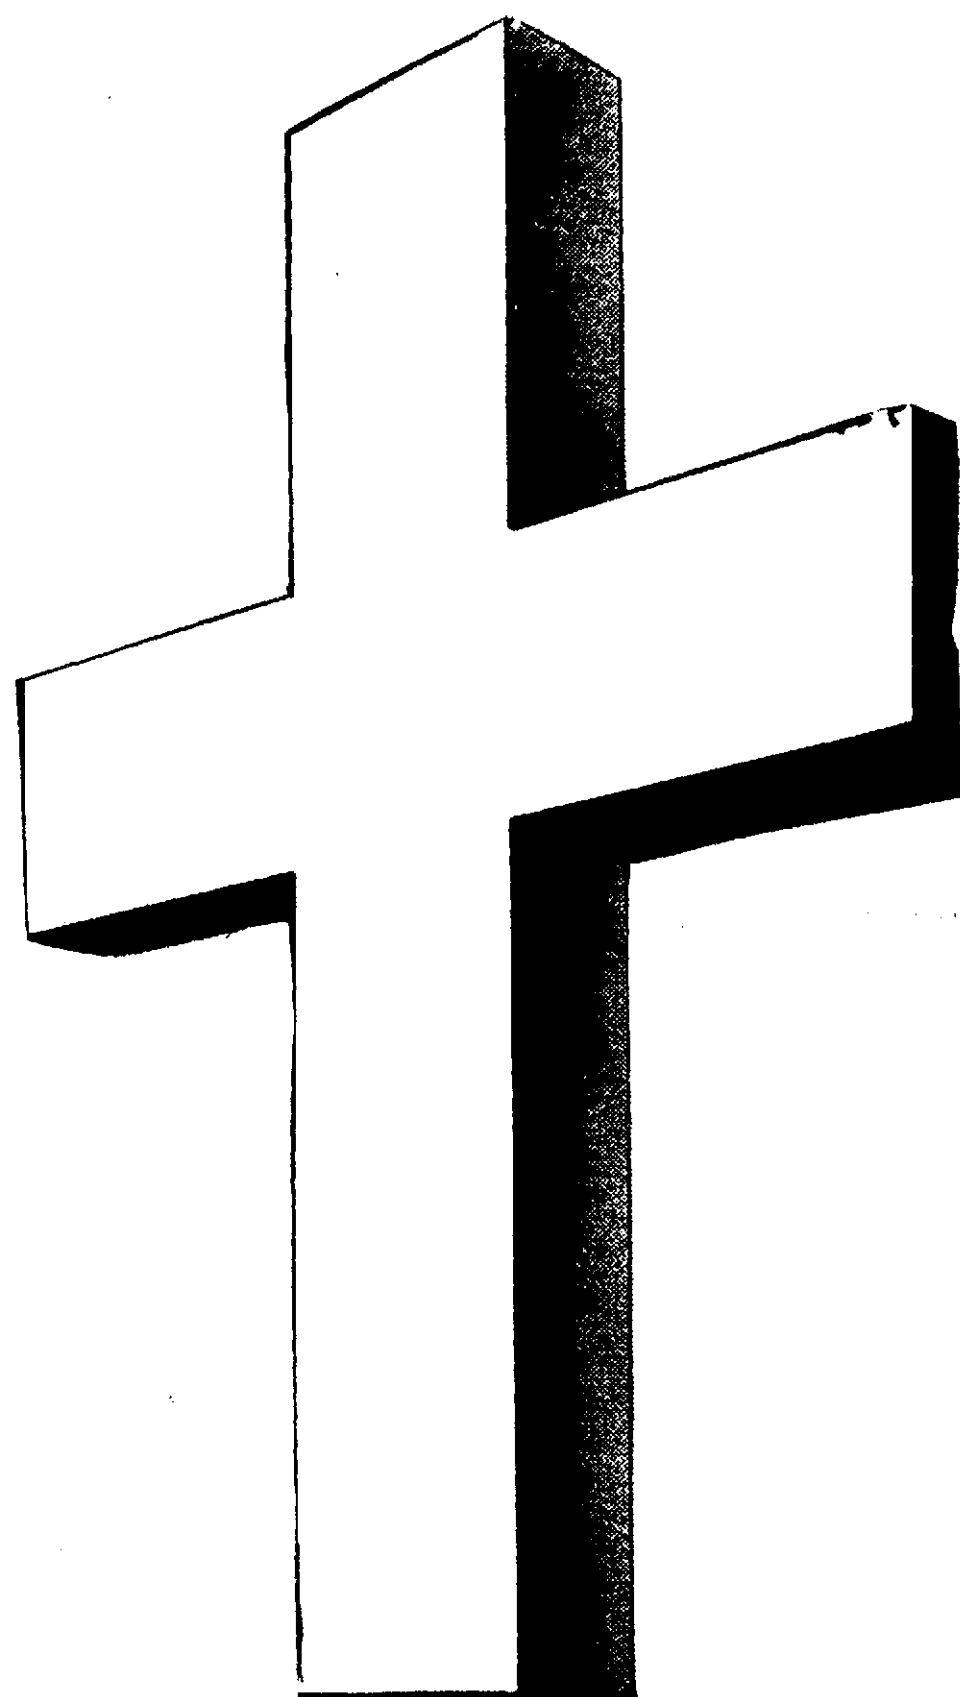

Just how will your New Year be New?

We and others, like ourselves, will make the difference. Be more kind and patient in the home circle—then it will be a new house this year. Exhibit a better spirit as you do the old task—and the office, or shop, or kitchen will be a new place for the New Year. Worship God more sincerely and work more in His program of service—then you will have a new church for the New Year.

Only a new Person will make it a New Year.

"My Compass"

Apparently the I.Q. of Admirals Has Hit a New Low

Between a military field commander and any non-fighting high brass with whom he might be involved in controversy American public opinion has always sided overwhelmingly with the actual fighting man.

And if this be true of the Army it goes double for the Navy—where a ship's captain is by tradition the one and only person responsible for the safety of his crew.

I hope, therefore, you were as shocked as I was to read in yesterday's Star the AP report on the Navy Court of Inquiry proceedings at Coronado, Calif., that Commander Lloyd M. Bucher is being threatened with a court-martial because he surrendered the Navy intelligence ship Pueblo to North Korean gunboats 11 months ago.

The incredible stupidity of bureaucrats was never so clear. The I.Q. of arm-chair paper-fighters electing to second-guess a fellow officer's judgment while under enemy fire has sunk to a new low.

Comdr. Bucher's No. 1 consideration, in the tradition of the sea, was to bring back his crew alive—and that he did. . . all 82 of them, although one died after release by the North Koreans.

The court of inquiry charges Comdr. Bucher didn't defend his ship.

Comdr. Bucher retorts the arm-chair admirals gave him nothing to defend it with—so he elected to save his men. . . God bless him!

But what about the secret orders every captain gets from the admiralty before sailing? Were those orders "Don't shoot back"—a secret that is now boomeranging against the high brass?

That's a fair question—and your instinct will give you an educated guess for an answer.

From where I sit it appears the Navy Court of Inquiry is trying to impeach a fighting man to save the "judges'" hides.

Vessel With 986 Aboard Is Adrift

NEW YORK (AP) — Agents for the Fairseas, a Liberian-owned vessel adrift 900 miles off the coast of Panama with 986 passengers, said today the company would have the ship towed to Balboa if it could not continue "on its own steam."

In New York, A. S. Price, general manager of Navco Cor., the agent, said he had no report on the progress of repairs on the ship's engine, disabled by fire, but that "by the end of the day it may be proceeding on its own steam."

The Coast Guard, however, said the U.S. Air Force Rescue Center at Albrook in the Canal Zone, which has been coordinating rescue efforts, said the ship would be towed to Cristobal by a New Orleans salvage firm.

The Coast Guard and Price said there were no injuries, sea conditions were calm and the ship was riding easily.

Price said the 13,432-ton vessel is a converted C3 merchant ship owned by Passenger Liner Service, Inc., of Monrovia, Liberia, and registered in Panama. It was sailing from Australia to Balboa in the Canal Zone, en route to Southampton, England.

Women Feel That Men May Love Them But Do They Like Them?

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Do men dislike women?

Many women feel they do. "I know my husband loves me, because he voluntarily told me so himself once—20 years ago," said one wife. "But I have always wondered if he really liked me, too. I don't feel that most men actually are fond of women or enjoy their company."

"There must be something about us they resent. Perhaps it's a biological resentment, the fact that we are able to bear children and they can't."

Oh, dear no, lady. How wrong can the feminine intuition be? Men have enough trouble putting up with children after they are born; they have no hidden desire to bear them. This perpetuating chore they are happy enough to leave to womankind.

While men have no desire to be women and often distrust them in general, there are many things they secretly respect and admire about women—or even envy. They just rarely express them aloud.

Man admires woman because she can find more happiness and excitement in small things than he can—a bit of chatty gossip, trading menus over the telephone, buying a new hat in the presence of fresh flowers in a living room vase, the soft glow of candlelight at dinner, even though the meal be warmed-over hash. What he grunts at, she exclaims over, for she has the great gift of brightening her world with tidbits of pleasure.

Man admires woman because of her endless quest for perfection. If there is to be a better or more gracious world, it will be her doing, not his. He is often willing to compromise and accept the second rate. She never is.

A woman, rich or poor, always has the desire to go through this world first class. If a thing isn't right, she tries to put it right.

Finally, man admires woman because, like M. Everest, she is there—ever inviting, ever challenging him to prove himself.

Why then, if men do admire women so much, don't they tell them so more often? The answer lies in simple male psychology.

If a man too often told a woman of his respect for her feminine strengths, it would seem to him like he'd be confessing his own masculine weaknesses. And what guy likes to do that?

Superintendent of Schools, James H. Jones, announces the opening of a new school facility at the Beryl Henry Elementary School site. The building and equipment are of the most modern design and arrangement for the instruction of children with learning disabilities.

The Superintendent points out that the annex, furnishing, and equipment were acquired by the district through a special allocation of ESEA Title I funds.

Mr. Jones says that this is another step forward in the school's effort to meet the educational needs of all the children in the district.

In order that patrons and all other interested members of the community may observe the new facility, "Open House" will be held Sunday, January 26, from 2 to 4 p.m.

WR Studies Various Tax Exemptions

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Thursday he was studying various tax exemptions to determine which he believed could more easily be removed from existing tax laws.

He said he planned to present a list of tax exemption priorities to the legislature next week.

The governor said at a news conference that he was a "stronger supporter of free enterprise" when asked if he had taken a position on a Senate bill that would provide for state-owned liquor stores.

400 Rioting Students Arrested

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Police, enforcing an antirally rule, arrested more than 400 persons Thursday at San Francisco State College.

By midnight, officers at city prison still had not booked all those brought in during a three-hour relay of nine police vans. Many were out on bail and their own recognizance a few hours later.

It was the biggest haul since a student strike, spearheaded by about 200 dissidents and supported by 250 striking teachers, began Nov. 6 at the 18,000 student campus.

About 300 policemen moved in after the crowd refused to heed warnings to disperse, given over a loudspeaker atop the administration building.

At a news conference later, Dr. S.I. Hayakawa, a noted semantologist who is acting as the college's seventh president within the past eight years, called the rally "an act of desperation" by militants.

He praised police for a "magnificent job of crowd control." Asked if there would be more mass arrests, he said "there is no reason for mass arrest if there aren't any masses."

Among those arrested were 15 American Federation of Teachers union pickets, including some from Fresno.

Nathan Hare, a negro instructor newly named to head a black studies department, created to placate strikers.

The forbidden noon rally—the first since students returned from the Christmas break—was announced Tuesday by the Third World Liberation Front, comprised of non-Negro minority students.

In a flurry of excitement before the mass arrests, some of the students who oppose the strike were chased across campus by demonstrators as the proadministration students tried to restore an American flag which had been cut down from a flagpole.

Ten policemen on horseback protected the flag-bearing students while Bill Barrett of the committee for an academic environment climbed up a human ladder and taped the flag to the pole.

Mrs. Faubus Files Suit for Divorce

HUNTSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Alta Faubus, wife of former Gov. Orval E. Faubus, filed a divorce suit Thursday in Chancery Court here. She alleged general indignities.

Faubus, governor for 12 years, waived his right to appear and said a property settlement already had been agreed upon. This means he will not contest the divorce.

Rumors had flourished as long ago as early last year that the Faubuses were splitting up, but each denied it then. Faubus had been out of politics at that time for about a year since he chose not to seek re-election in the 1966 campaign.

Faubus, contacted at Clark where he works on a weekly newspaper he owns, said sometimes problems arise in marriage that cannot be solved except by divorce.

The Faubuses have been married 37 years and have one son, Farrell Faubus, a lawyer who filed the divorce suit for his mother.

Faubus drew national attention in 1957 when he called out the National Guard to temporarily block desegregation of Little Rock Central High School under a court-approved plan voluntarily drawn up by the Little Rock School Board.

Hunter Killed Accidentally

SEARCY, Ark. (AP) — White County Coroner Allen Foster said that Bernice Cleveland, 28, of Judsonia was killed Thursday in a hunting accident.

Foster said Cleveland was hunting with two other Judsonia residents. Cleveland was stepping through a fence, Foster said, when Ervin Seymour's 20-gauge shotgun discharged as he attempted to get a bead on a rabbit.

Pueblo Captain Admits Spy Confession After Blood-chilling Torture

By RICHARD E. MEYER

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — From his lonely prison room in North Korea, U.S. Navy Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher could hear little girls laughing.

Children went by outside singing a marching song.

Things were improving. A few days before, on March 5, 1968, Bucher and his 81 men from the USS Pueblo had been moved to the prison in the countryside.

It was six or seven miles from Pyongyang, the capital of North Korea, Bucher told a court of inquiry Thursday. The court of five admirals is investigating capture of his intelligence ship.

"We were treated much more humanely," Bucher said, comparing this prison to the compound where he and his men were taken when they were captured three months before. At that compound, Bucher said, he and his men had suffered severe beatings and Bucher underwent chilling mental torture.

"There was always an aura of terror," he said. But now the men had daily sick call except for Saturdays and when doctors were not available.

"Nurses were always available and their professional qualifications were comparable to See PUEBLO (on page two)

Nixon Wins First Test in Congress

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AA associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration has easily won its first congressional test, gaining confirmation of Walter J. Hickel as secretary of Interior over the opposition of nearly all the Senate Democratic leadership.

But indications were that Democrats in Congress will be watching the Alaska governor's every move after he is sworn in at the White House ceremonies today.

"Mr. Hickel is on notice from both ends of Pennsylvania Avenue," said Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield after Hickel was confirmed Thursday by a vote of 73 to 16.

"It will probably mean he will be a very good secretary of State."

Helicopters Shot Down, 14 Killed

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command announced today a medical evacuation helicopter was shot down in the central highlands killing seven and bringing the war's total of choppers lost in combat to 999.

The command also belatedly announced that a helicopter shot down Jan. 15 south of Da Nang killed Col. Michael M. Spark, 41, Alexandria, Va., commander of the 3rd Marine Division's 3rd Regiment. Six others, including a Marine officer, died with him in the flaming crash. Spark was the first Marine regimental commander killed in Vietnam.

The medical evacuation helicopter was downed Thursday in the central highlands 23 miles northwest of Pleiku. Three wounded Americans and four crewmen were killed. The command said it was clearly marked with red crosses.

In addition to the number of helicopters lost in combat, the U.S. Command said 1,316 others have been lost since Jan. 1, 1961, due to mechanical failure, enemy barrages that caught them on the ground and other causes.

Meanwhile, U.S. military analysts said from now until mid-February is a critical period in the Vietnam war because of the peace talks in Paris and the new administration in Washington.

These experts do not see any imminent threat to Saigon. Instead they anticipate enemy attacks on the three provinces along the Cambodian border northwest to northeast of the capital—Tay Ninh, Binh Long and Phuoc Long.

The analysts said intelligence reports indicate the Communist command plans to increase operations in an attempt to give the negotiators from Hanoi and the Viet Cong greater leverage in Paris and to put pressure on the Nixon administration while it is still shaking down.

An enemy winter-spring offensive has been anticipated since last Dec. 13, but the experts said they believe the U.S. and South Vietnamese operations that have smashed numerous bases and captured hundreds of tons of supplies have upset the Viet Cong's timetable.

Because Cambodia is off limits to U.S. and South Vietnamese forces, supplies stockpiled just over the border are available to the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese for operations nearby in the three northern provinces of the 3rd Corps Area, which has Saigon at its heart.

"The enemy is not in a position to attack Saigon right now," one source said. He conceded, however, that the Viet Cong can make terror raids, blow up allied installations and pull off assassinations inside the capital. He estimated there are now 400 to 500 special action troops in Saigon, agents trained in terror, assassination and use of explosives.

In the only significant ground fighting reported today, the South Vietnamese said their troops killed 44 Viet Cong in the Mekong Delta Thursday afternoon 103 miles southwest of Saigon.
